

The municipality of the City of Omro is organized as a 4th Class City under Chapter 62 of the Wisconsin State Statutes, which provides for the Mayoral / Council form of government. Under this organization, city government has a legislative branch belonging exclusively to the City Council, an executive or administrative branch under the direction of a City Administrator-Clerk-Treasurer who is hired by the City Council, and a judicial branch administered under the direction of the Municipal Court Judge.

Under Wisconsin "OPEN RECORDS" law, all communications including e-mail, sent to any City office or elected official may be subject to inspection by, and disclosure to, anyone who asks to see the document. If you desire to email any city council member, please click the email link next to their photo. City Council members may reply to email inquiries via email, telephone or conventional mail.
