- Attendance Mayor Robert R. Breu, City Administrator Linda K. Kutchenriter, City Attorney Lud Wurtz, Aldermanic Representatives Steve Jungwirth, Gordon Garvens, Larry Wright, Jason Reeves, and Rod Brusius. Community Development Director Kim Biedermann, Omro Herald Reporter Julie Schmidt. Residents Pete Hennes, Bill Joch, Lisa Hall, Tim Doolittle, and John Steen.
- Call to Order Mayor Breu called the council meeting to order at 7:02 pm in the council chambers at Omro City Hall.
- Invocation and Pledge of Allegiance The invocation was given by Larry Wright, followed by the presentation of the Pledge of Allegiance.
- Roll Call Alderman Ken Cady was absent. A majority quorum of the city council members was in attendance to conduct the official business of the city.
- Citizens Statements
- Lisa Hall of 336 E. Huron Street addressed the council with her concerns with Overdog Products having outdoor music, as she lives right across the street. Her concerns were with the number of permits per year, how long the music lasts, and not being able to have her windows open in the summer.
- Tim Doolittle of 232 Adams Avenue addressed the council with questions on the grant for park boat repairs. He asked how much boat launch fees were collected.
- Bill Joch addressed the council on behalf of the Kiwanis. He stated that they would like to put a Kiwanis sign on the city signs at the entrances to the city. He stated that it would be nice to recognize Kiwanis for its community endeavors and any sign would be fastened to the legs of the city signs. The council discussed other options for sign placement. Administrator Kutchenriter will speak with the Chamber to see if the civic organization signs could be placed on their sign base.
